Dear Miss Oluwatoyin Olamoyesan & Mrs Olutosin Costa,

RE: FORMAL REJECTION OF INVALID NOTICE TO QUIT DATED 8TH MAY 2026,
SERVED 30TH MAY 2026 - PROPERTY AT BUNGALOW 2B, LSDPC PHASE 4, TYPE
C, IJAIYE-OGBA, LAGOS - TENANCY OF 01-09-2025 TO 30-08-2026

I refer to the document purporting to be a Notice to Quit in respect of my yearly tenancy at the above property for the fixed term of 01-09-2025 to 30-08-2026.

I have been advised and hereby formally reject the said notice as defective, void, and of no legal effect under the Tenancy Law of Lagos State 2011 for the following reasons:

1. Non-Compliance With Statutory Period: My tenancy is a yearly tenancy determinable on 30th August 2026. Under Section 13 of the Tenancy Law of Lagos State 2011, a yearly tenant is entitled to 6 clear months Notice to Quit. To validly determine my tenancy on 30-08-2026, such notice ought to have been served on or before 28th February 2026. Your purported notice dated 8th May 2026 and served 30th May 2026 gives only 3 months and therefore is short, invalid and incapable of determining my tenancy.
2. Uncertainty and Inconsistency: The notice fails to state a certain date of determination and is inconsistent as to its effective date - dated 8th May but served 30th May. Time runs from service, not writing.
3. Prejudice to Contractual Right of Renewal: Clause (iv) of our tenancy agreement grants me an option to renew 1 month before expiration i.e. by 30th July 2026. Your defective notice served on 30th May 2026 seeks to foist a premature determination on me during my contractual renewal window, in breach of our tenancy agreement.
4. Failure of Proper Identification & Service: The notice bears no valid email/telephone of counsel, and was served via caretaker and not via lawful personal service. This offends the Rules of Professional Conduct and denies me the right to respond.

In view of the above, the purported Notice to Quit is void and cannot ground the mandatory 7-Day Notice of Owner's Intention to Recover Possession nor any suit for possession.

I shall only surrender possession upon service of a valid 6-month Notice to Quit expiring on 30-08-2027 and a valid court order executed by the Sheriff.

Take notice that any act of self-help, including harassment, threat, lock-out, removal of roof/doors, or disconnection of utilities, is a criminal offence under Section 44 of the Tenancy Law. I shall petition the Commissioner of Police and seek damages and injunction.

Olarinde Ajai
Yearly Tenant

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

This correspondence is written without prejudice to my existing rights, my yearly tenancy, and my contractual option to renew. Nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of any right or as an admission that the purported Notice to Quit is valid or that my tenancy has been lawfully determined.
