Dear Mrs Olutosin Costa,

Statutory Duty to Disclose Legal Name and Valid Address – Tenancy and UK Compliance Obligations

Property: Bungalow 2b, LSDPC Phase 4, Type C, Ijaiye Ogba, Lagos.

This letter constitutes a formal notice regarding your statutory duties as the UK-resident owner of my rented property:

1. Mandatory Disclosure of Identity (UK & Nigerian Law)

Refusal to provide a full legal name and valid address is a breach of tenancy disclosure laws in both the United Kingdom and Lagos, Nigeria.

- Nigerian Statutory Requirement: Under Section 5(1) of the Lagos State Tenancy Law 2011, landlords are mandated to provide rent receipts and agreements that clearly state the full legal names and addresses of both parties.
- UK Statutory Requirement: Pursuant to Section 1 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1985, I am formally requesting your full name and address. Please note that under UK law, failure to provide this information without a reasonable excuse is a summary offence.

Required Action: Please provide your full legal name and a valid UK address for the service of notices immediately.

2. Regulatory and Tax Reporting Obligations As a UK resident, I must ensure that my financial records are transparent and compliant with the following:

- HMRC Self Assessment: I am required to declare rental payments as a valid expense in my UK tax return. For these records to meet HMRC's standards for transparency, I must disclose the full legal name and address of the payee.

- Professional Vetting (SC/DV & DBS Clearance): As an independent contractor working on high-security infrastructure and financial projects, I am subject to continuous and rigorous background checks. UK National Security Vetting (SC/DV) requires full disclosure of all significant financial outflows. Any ambiguity regarding payments made to an anonymous individual in an overseas jurisdiction can be flagged as a money laundering risk or a vulnerability to blackmail, directly jeopardising my security clearance and my career.
- Previous Notice: Please be aware that your caretaker, Miss Oluwatoyin Olamoyesan, was explicitly informed of these vetting requirements before our initial brief phone conversation and the subsequent signing of the tenancy agreement.

Final Compliance Deadline: 10 January 2026

My annual Self-Assessment return is due by 31 January 2026. To ensure that I do not file inaccurate or incomplete information, I require your full details no later than 10 January 2026.

Please be advised that continued non-compliance will leave me with no choice but to escalate this matter through the necessary legal and regulatory channels. This includes a formal report to HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) regarding the lack of transparent documentation for these payments and, if necessary, a disclosure to the relevant security vetting authorities regarding the refusal of my landlord to identify themselves.

I trust you will provide the requested information promptly to avoid the commencement of these official processes.

Yours sincerely,

Olarinde Ajai
